PRICE TWO CENTS

KEEP ON, GRAFT JURY PLEA

KEYS' DEFEAT KINGS OUT NEW HARDING RIVALS

Kenyon and Johnson May Be Entries.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, D. C., July 13.—[Special.]—Opposition to the renomination of President Harding, which appeared as a faint glimmer in the sun of returning popularity several months ago, shows unmistakable signs of reviving as a result of the radical landslide in Minnesota and the widespread discontent among the farmers, intensified at this time by the sagging wheat market.

New efforts by party leaders to induce Mr. Harding to gracefully decline a second term may be expected, as was predicted in some quarters last week. A movement of this sort had gained considerable momentum after the Republican reverses in the 1922 election, but it died out when proper business along, and for months Republican leaders have been proceeding on the theory that nothing could stand in the way of Mr. Harding's re-election.

Two Sources of Trouble.
They were confident that the farm-ers, helped by the legislation put through in the closing days of con-gress, would share the general pro-sperity, and that opposition to giving President Harding a second term would be impossible to get a foot-hold.

Now, however, they concede that the farm-ers are not so happy, and are ready to vent their wrath on Mr. Harding's administration. The fact, while it does not mean a con-siderable change in the attitude of the farm-ers, has not been pleased by the news of Mr. Harding's return to the White House.

The boom launched in New York yesterday by Senator Brookhart (Rep., Ind.) for Judge Kenyon, former chief justice of Iowa, was the subject of much comment. Friends of the judge, many of whom thought he made a great mis-take when he retired from the senate last year, have been keeping close eyes on political developments, ready to see the judge's name into the ring of the contest they think the psychological moment has arrived.

Reason for Kenyon.
Judge Kenyon is radical enough to be a Brookhart man, but he is con-sidered by many to be a federal cir-cuit judge, and his appointment from President Harding. Special significance may be attached to Senator Brookhart's boom launching when it is re-membered that he is Senator La Follette's closest follower in the senate. It is well known that several other senators are ready to boost the Kenyon boom and much more may be said of it.

Whether Senator La Follette would be willing to support Judge Kenyon is doubtful. It has been generally ex-pected that "Fighting Bob" would oppose Harding and this belief has been strengthened by Magnus Johnson's victory in Minnesota, which was in a sense a La Follette triumph. Some observers believe he might be induced to turn his support to come other radical when it became apparent to him that his own chances were gone. Senator Brookhart has made the first move to get La Follette into the race for Kenyon.

The other Senator Johnson.
The Minnesota results add new in-terest to the return of Senator Hiram Johnson (Rep., Cal.) from his ex-tended tour in Europe. Preparations have already been made to give him a rous-ing welcome when he reaches New York next week. An elaborate banquet has been arranged and on the reception committee are many conservative New Yorkers who regarded Johnson as a "home boy" when he was fighting for the Republican nomination in 1912. It is no secret that quite a number of senators are ready to climb aboard the Johnson band wagon if it ever gets rolling. Senator Moses (Rep., N. H.), chairman of the Republican senatorial campaign committee, is said to be one of Johnson's strongest supporters. It would be no surprise even if the New York reception was featured by the return of the Hiram Johnson band.

Magnus Called a Lincoln.
Madison, Wis., July 13.—Senator Robert M. La Follette will sail for Europe about Aug. 1 to study eco-nomic and labor conditions in England, Germany, Denmark, and other coun-tries, he announced today. He will re-turn about Oct. 1. He will be accom-panied by Mrs. La Follette, their son, R. M. La Follette Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Basil Stanley of Washington. This will be Senator La Follette's first trip since he was elected in 1912.

FOLLIES GIRL AND HER EARL HERE TO WED

Hold Nuptials Today, Denials Affirm.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES.

Jessica Brown, chorus girl with a service stripe in the Follies, an ex-bus-band, and a chaperoning mother, will be married here this morning to the Earl of Northesk, her Scotch fiancé with a haunted castle, four country homes, and a 576 year old title, accord-ing to the plans revealed by their de-nials last night.

Discovered yesterday in adjacent suites at the Drake hotel, the Chicago swagirl and the Scotch laird who fol-lowed her to America from London last May protested that they slipped into town quietly Monday night simply to show "Mamma"—Mrs. A. W. Stark—the beauties of the city. Mrs. Stark hails from Chicago.

The Real Objective.

But a marriage license is the real objective of the trio.

For, before putting their motor trip through the city, Jessica wired her at-orney, Frank T. Jordan, to learn if love still lasted at recent divorce in Chicago. Miss Brown was divorced last October from Cyril De Witt Rein-hardt, a naval engineer. On June 4 the city clerk of New York refused to issue a marriage license, declar-ing her divorce illegal. Reinhardt, he said, had been served by publication and the action had not been dissolved.

Upon being reassured by Attorney Jordan that there was no legal im-pediment in Illinois to her mar-riage with the titled Scotchman, the pair, accompanied by Mrs. Stark, hurried to the Drake.

Jessica, swathed in a clinging crepe gown, strutted through the tran-son of her room last night that was "ridiculous," the laird, that she was to be married on the morrow.

"I just love Chicago," insisted the girl who is soon to acquire a title, castle in Portarshire, and Whitley Ridge, Brochlochmure, not to speak of the London town residence in Sloane street.

"And so we stopped off here to—"

Mother Speaks Up.

Miss Brown's voice, trailing across the tran-son, was deflected as a negro porter, carrying a tray, passed her. Carrying her to where his ma-chine was parked, he sped to a hos-pital, where physicians said Mary will be kept for several days at least.

Woman Beaten by Ar.

Mary disappeared the day before her stepmother, Mrs. Anna Lawando, was attacked and beaten over the head with a small ax while sleeping in her home.

Schlesler and Sheriff Arthur Stewart came upon the girl on the highlands of the swamp. A number of promen-tine had gone in this afternoon were searching another section and ap-parently had driven the girl from a hide-out place. The sheriff and his com-panion saw her approaching and dropped behind some bushes, watch-ing her as she made slow progress toward them.

When the girl noticed them she broke into a rapid run and with the two men at her heels, calling on her to stop, she fled to the edge of a heavy bog into which she plunged. Both men jumped into the water, and following a struggle succeeded in lifting her to dry land.

Condition Is Serious.

Mary's condition is serious, accord-ing to physicians at the hospital where she was taken. She is very weak and suffering from lack of food and the bites of mosquitoes and deer flies.

Sheriff Stewart said tonight he could not understand how a girl in such a weakened condition could run as fast as Mary did in reaching the bog.

"We chased her about two blocks," he said, "and did not seem to be gain-ing on her until she flung herself into the bog."

Poorest Becomes a Bride

While Waiting Operation

New York, July 13.—Edna St. Vin-cent Millay, poet, was married at New York, July 12, to Eugene Croton, an oil-driller, who is a Dutch im-porter, wealthy Dutch importer, a few hours before she was taken to a New York hospital for an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Croton's first wife was Inez Milland, famous suf-fragist, who died in 1914.

"SWAMP GIRL" IS NABBED IN WOODS

Refuses to Tell Where She's Been 8 Days.

Wanted, Wis., July 13.—Mary Lawando, missing for eight days, was cap-tured after she had thrown herself into a bog in the big swamp six miles south of here shortly after 3 o'clock tonight. She was surprised by Sheriff Arthur Stewart and Henry Schlesler as promen-tine were beating the swamp.

Since the girl disappeared the swamp has been combed by the sheriff and his possemen, but only meager traces of the girl were found. Every time a trail, supposedly made by Mary, was uncovered it soon became lost in the tangled underbrush.

When fitted from the bog, where she made a last attempt to foil her pursuers, Mary's condition was such that the sheriff refused to question her. Carrying her to where his ma-chine was parked, he sped to a hos-pital, where physicians said Mary will be kept for several days at least.

2 DIE IN MORGUE; POLICE BAFFLED

Owner Stabbed; Woman Aid Falls to Death.

Kansas City, Mo., July 13.—Mrs. Ella Thompson, employed in a local undertaking establishment, and her employer, W. M. McClure, were found dead in the undertaking parlors early tonight. Circumstances attending their deaths are baffling police.

Mrs. Thompson's death is attributed to a fall of two stories down an elevator shaft.

Mr. McClure's body was found, a long post-mortem knife buried in the chest, shortly after he had instructed a colored porter to call doctors to aid Mrs. Thompson. The body was stretched upon an undertaker's slab.

Mr. McClure was 55 years old and married. Mrs. Thompson was 38 years old.

Mary as Told by Janitor.

Fred Webb, a colored janitor, told the police that when he returned to work at the undertaker's rooms early tonight he found Mr. McClure bending over Mrs. Thompson's body at the bottom of the elevator shaft.

"She has fallen down the shaft," he quoted McClure as saying.

McClure ordered him to call physi-cians; the janitor said, after he and McClure had carried the woman's body from the shaft. Two physicians ar-rived and examined the body. Mr. Mc-Culure left when they arrived.

Discover the Second Body.

When the doctors asked to see the proprietor of the establishment a search was started, which ended with the discovery of McClure's body in the morgue.

The door into the elevator shaft was found to have been left open. Blood was found on the elevator.

Investigation as far as has not re-vealed that any other person besides Mr. McClure and Mrs. Thompson was in the building when Mrs. Thompson's death occurred.

Mr. McClure is described by his friends as of a highly nervous tempera-ment.

Mrs. Thompson, a widow, had been a bookkeeper at the undertaker's rooms several years. Fellow employees as-serted she had threatened several times recently to resign.

MAN SLAIN NEAR DEATH CORNER AS CROWD LOOKS ON

Circ. Compass, 123 Townsend street, 34 years, was shot to death last night in front of hundreds of persons close to the grocery of Leonardo Guardato, 425 Oak street, one block from "death corner." Policeman Frank Raypole, especially assigned to "death corner," ran immediately to the spot, but the murderer had escaped.

No one of the excited Italians around would give any information as to the shooting. The police are unde-cided as to whether it was a black hand murder or the result of a boot-legger war which is being conducted in the district.

French Lose 2,000 in Fight In Morocco

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

(Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.)

PARIS, July 13.—Quietly and almost unnoticed France embarked on a new African war on the eve of July 14, without even distracting the govern-ment's attention from the Ruhr or the attention of Paris from the summer shows.

Twenty infantry battalions, twelve squadrons of cavalry, ten batteries of artillery and five airplane squadrons under the command of Gen. Poeymirau began an offensive against Mountain Taza, Morocco, on July 13. The losses for the last four days are said to have reached 2,000, but the French capital is not aware that the war is in progress.

Too Hot in Paris.

The stifling heat of the last week-end compelled the government to cancel the huge military review it had planned in Paris on account of the heat; yet the Moroccan climate is admitted to be pretty warm even by the war department here.

The Moroccan forces are at Les Sidi Raho and Sidi Belkacj, under the direction of Abdel Malek. Malek's power has been growing greater every day for the past three years, threatening the existence of the French empire in North Africa.

Hoped to Trap Moors.

The war ministry ordered the war to be pushed southward in the summer, hoping to catch the Moors inactive. The battleground lies north of the impassable mountain district of Taza.

"Calamity to City."
Juror H. L. Todd said he was of the same mind. Juror E. L. Carter said he wanted to go on record in favor of continuance. Juror F. D. Adams said
"It would be desirable if the investigation was dropped. It would be a calamity to the city. It is a disgrace to think that with two sets of prosecutors and a jury in session and no one to furnish us assistance.
Thousands of dollars have been spent on paying, real estate, fire, and the trustee fund. There must be some way to continue."

Judge Asks Report.
The court—This jury is going to be protected. Last of all should such attacks come from a member of the bar I want full information on this. I will ask Mr. Brown and Mr. MacCracken to report. Now is there anyone who feels that this investigation has been completed.

There was no response.
The court—Mr. Brown is under orders from his superior and that accounts for his not presenting evidence.
We have a grand jury which has been sitting for eleven months, has been subjected to trailing by investigators, to abuse in court, and is still ready to function. The court is ready. There is no one to present evidence. I would be desirous if I discharged you now.
I will ask a recess until Aug. 2, and we will see if any organization or the public will give this jury the support to which it is entitled.

"Time to Quit."
When the jurors went to their room last evening an alarm clock ringing interrupted their discussion. One of the jurors found the clock under the pillow box. Across the face of the clock some one had written:
"Time to quit—Fred Lounell."

Pageant of Progress profits, estimated at from $25,000 to $50,000, will be turned into the city treasury in accord with a recent ruling of the Appellate court, Mayor Dever was told yesterday by D. P. Kelly, treasurer of the exhibition.

The proceeds from the pageant were placed in escrow after a taxpayer had complained to Judge G. F. Rush that they were about to be divided between individuals and organizations which had no right to receive derived from private use of the Municipal pier. The Theaters club, a Thompson-Lundin political organization, and the Chicago Training School for Blind Nurses, founded by former Health Commissioner John Dill Robertson, were to have been beneficiaries of the fund.
"Mr. Kelly assured me that all their cards were on file and that the complete financial statements of the pageant would be given me in a few days," the mayor said.

EX-FOLLIES GIRL AND SCOTCH EARL HERE TO BE WED

Denials Affirm Today
as Nuptial Date.

The story goes, who explored the dread chamber, unsealed its doors, and discovered a child's squeaky go-cart creaking unceasingly on a pile of ashes on the hearthstone. The room was done over and will be part of the castle over which the Follies beauty will reign.

Tall and Boyish.
The tall, boyish and English in his brown suit with the "correct" English bagginess, didn't look seven years younger than his fiancée, but the earl won't be 22 until September and Miss Brown's divorced husband swore she was 22 when he married her, on March 26, 1918.

But nobody brought up the subject of age as the Scotch bridegroom-elect stepped over to his bride and mother-in-law-elect.
Everybody smiled.
"You people over here make a jolly lot of fuss about a wedding, don't you know," philosophized the earl.
"Now, at home, I could have been married peacefully, really. You do things differently over here," and he smiled lovingly toward the blonde girl engaged to the eleventh earl of a famous Scotch line.

Was Jolly Clever.
"We slipped in here quietly Monday night," the earl gazed expansively, "and really, we thought we were jolly clever.
Nobody knew we were here. Why did we come? O, just to motor about a bit. Really."

"Marry, well rather. But not tomorrow. But very soon, yes very soon."

The earl, with a gracious bow, stroled toward the "lift," still smiling.
As the tilted Scotch youth turned the corner near the elevators, Mrs. A.
W. Stark and Miss Jessica Brown banged their door to with a click.
Transom Talk Renewed.
"Ridiculous," shouted a nasal soprano through the transom.
"Impertinent," a throaty contralto intoned through the keyhole.
And David Ludovic George Hopeston Carnegie, eleventh Earl of Northesk, on his way downstairs in the elevator, was smiling.

ANGRY JURY SETS $40,000 AS BONDS ON RAPE CHARGE

So incensed were the members of the grand jury yesterday when the case of Albert Hughes, an ex-convict, 24 years old, 1878 Clybourn avenue, charged with the rape of two small girls, came before them, that their exclamations could be heard in the corridors of the Criminal court. Their feelings were so strong that they fixed Hughes' bonds at $40,000 for each of the two indictments they voted against him, although ordinarily bonds in such cases are set at $5,000.

KILLED BY TRAIN IN IOWA.
Cedar Falls, Ia., July 18.—Bernabe Torres, a Mexican employed on a Rock Island section train, was killed late yesterday when he dropped from the train before a passenger train at Morris siding, near here.

BOY CRUSHED TO DEATH AS TRUCK RUNS INTO CROWD

Mother Injured in Effort to Save Him.

Albert Throw, 9 years old, was fatally injured yesterday as his mother, Mrs. Julia Throw,
3227 South Halsted street, vainly hurled herself in front of an automobile truck in an effort to save him and her three other children from being crushed. The truck, driven by a nervous Thomas
Lang, 4155 Lake
Park avenue, buried the cowering family at 47th street and Lake Park avenue, and passed over Albert, crushing him, and creaking unceasingly on a pile of ashes
on the hearthstone. The room was done over and will be part of the castle
over which the Follies beauty will reign.

The boy died at the Chicago hospital, and Mrs. Throw, with her children—George, 11, Julia, 9, and Joseph, 1 year old—were in a serious condition at St. Bernard's hospital.

Learning to Drive.
Lang was being taught how to drive
the truck, purchased for the C. G.
Spring company, where he is foreman.
He drove along 47th street toward the corner of Lake Park avenue, where Mrs. Throw and fifteen children she was chaperoning to a picnic at Jackson park waited for a street car.

Lang attempted to turn the corner and started over the curb, police said.
Mrs. Throw screamed and, seizing her baby in her arms, leaped to hurl the children out of the truck's path.

The Hyde Park police are holding Lang and Robert Fisher, 2719 South Lafayette street, pending the coroner's inquest to be held today at the Chicago hospital. Fisher was seated beside Lang demonstrating the operation of the truck.

Frank Smith, 35 South Aberdeen street, died in St. Luke's hospital yesterday as a result of injuries suffered June 20 when he was struck by an automobile truck driven by Edward Riedel, 3203 West 38th street, who was ordered to appear at the inquest today.

Police to Enforce New Rule.
Chief of Police Collins said yesterday that he eagerly awaited the proposed amendment to Municipal court rules which will permit his men to take speeders and reckless drivers to police stations where they will be forced to give a $500 real estate or $200 cash bond before being released.

"We will live up to the letter of the law," he declared. "I believe it will be a forcible deterrent to speed demons, and will cut down motor accidents and delinquency."

In the meantime, Chief Collins said, police men are ordered to arrest and take to their stations all reckless and intoxicated drivers guilty of major offenses.

Municipal Judge Henry M. Walker and Fred Glicker continued to mete out heavy fines and jail sentences in Speeders' court. Jessa Violes, 233 North Hamilton avenue, was sentenced to five days in the house of correction and fined $100 and costs when he was found guilty of driving while intoxicated.

"Vigilantes" to Be Organized.
In the hope of ridding their community of reckless and drunken automobile drivers and midnight "sponsors," residents of West North Edgewater have laid plans to form a "vigilante" body to police the neighborhood.

Mark McGinnis, 4341 Maplewood avenue, president of the West North Edgewater Improvement association, said the action was deemed necessary as a result of an "increasing number of accidents recently."

DRAINAGE BOARD PAVES WAY FOR LAKE LEVEL PLAN

Removes Fear of Dispute with Canada.

Convinced that they have paved the way for an understanding with Canadian authorities in the lake level controversy, President William J.
Healy and other sanitary district officials yesterday returned from a two weeks' tour of eastern Canada.

"We were cordially received everywhere," said Mr. Healy, "and the prospects for an amicable adjustment are excellent. In fact, there is not now any dispute between the Canadian authorities and the sanitary district of Chicago. It was to eliminate possibility of one that we took this trip."

The federal injunction recently granted by Judge Carpenter, restrain-ing the sanitary district from using more than the 4,187 cubic feet of water a second provided in our war department permit, makes it necessary for us to go to congress for authority to use the 13,000 cubic feet a second we need. We are now taking 4,000 cubic feet, and under the injunction have only six months in which to cut down to the prescribed limit.

"Of course, we can't make this adjustment, so we must appeal to congress. But before doing this we wanted to have Canada's consent to our plan."

"Details of our proposal were not well known in Canada. We submitted facts showing we are prepared to construct regulating works—one in the Niagara river, below Buffalo, N. Y., and another in the St. Lawrence river —at an estimated cost of $2,500,000, to be borne by the sanitary district. We contend that these will restore the lake level, if it has been lowered."

"We were requested to draw up a formal statement of our case and plans and forward it to Canada. This we shall do. This shows the door is open for negotiations."

TOM TALKS WITH PRESS AS SUIT IS IN THE PRESS

By Which Mr. Meighan Wins Photos.

"On location" Tommy Meighan—beg pardon—Meighan may change deftly from suit to suit, appear in one set in evening dress, in the next in nifty sporting togs, in a third in ordinary street clothes, and so on ad infinitum.
That is in REAL life. Tommy, it appears, is not so well stocked up "off" as he is "on" location. For on his arrival in Chicago on his way to the Pacific coast yesterday, he received a coterie of reporters and photographers in his R. V. D. and, and a short black-dressing gown; sat with bare legs to be interviewed while he waited for a bellboy to return with his suit, which was being pressed.

It Really Makes No Difference.
But for all that the press caught him short, as it were, Mr. Meighan is the same Tommy off that he is on the screen. The same twinkle is in the Meighan eye, now misanthropic, now wicked. He is the Thomas Meighan of the "Miracle Man," the "No. 1 De-Well," "Cappy Ricks," and of "Back Home and Broke" all rolled into one.

"He's a regular guy," said the hard-boiled photographers, and what more could a motion picture star wish than to pass that acid test?

What He's Doing.
Mr. Meighan arrived on the Twentieth Century limited with Mrs. Meighan, who was Frances Ring of the legiti-mate stage, with whom he appeared here some years ago in "The College Widow" and married about a year later. He finished work on a picture called "Homeward Bound," by Peter B. Kyne, author of "Cappy Ricks," in New York on Saturday, and he will start next Monday on the production of "All Must Marry," which George Ade, author of "Back Home and Broke," has written for him.

Of all his pictures, Mr. Meighan says he likes the "Miracle Man" the best.
Mr. Meighan left last night at 9 o'clock over the Santa Fe. On the same train went Harold Lloyd and his wife, Mildred Davis, also a star, and Lila Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Appel, who has been visiting her parents here.

FILIPINOS PUT ROW WITH WOOD UP TO HARDING

Manila Is Quiet After Cabinet Revolt.

MANILA, July 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—The next move in the Philippine crisis that has stripped the Philippine government of all its heads of office is expected to come from Washington.

It is conceded generally that a resignation must come from the national capital on the controversy which developed over Gov. Gen. Leonard Wood's reappointment of Ray Conley, secret service agent charged with charges of sedition, and which became a government crisis early yesterday, when the members of the cabinet and members of the council of state all Philippine resignations.

Manila itself is quiet on the surface, but there are undercurrents of building excitement today.

Philippine Cable to Harding.
Manuel Quezon, head of the new Congressional party, critic of the Wood administration, who quit the presidency at the Philippine senate in the recent incident, made the following statement in the Associated Press all or a portion of which is believed to have been embodied in a message cabled by the Philippine leaders to President Harding as a presentation of their side of the case.

"We welcome the present crisis because it will call the attention of congress to the need for a definite status of government here."

"For the resignation of members of the council of state and departmental secretaries there is no attack on the sovereign power of the United States nor a challenge to the authority of its representative in the Philippine islands. It is not even a protest against the administration of President Harding, nor against Gov. Gen. Wood personally, but it is a protest against the principle of democracy and good government and the rights already granted the Filipino people by the people of the United States."

"It is understood that the cable to President Harding, which was sent under the auspices of both houses of the legislature, also reminds the chief executive of his statement some months ago to the Philippines independence mission that there would be no aid to the Filipino people in the local government of the islands."

Gov. Wood has issued no statement since he accepted the resignations of the officials. However, he has called under the auspices of the Philippine War Veterans.

Quezon today made a statement to the Philippine people generally urging them not to organize any demonstrations here or in the provinces, since such action might lead to collisions between Americans and Filipinos. The press received the news quietly and united in appealing to the people to maintain calm.

U. S. Backs Gen. Wood.
Washington, D. C., July 18.—By the Associated Press.—"The receipt of an official report on the political upheaval in the Philippines, war department officials today declined to make any comment beyond vowing an assurance that Gov. Gen. Wood would have the full backing of Washington in all proper steps to maintain a suitable government in the islands."

"It was pointed out that Gen. Wood had ample legal authority to take the action he did. In any event, the Conley incident is regarded as a minor one, and not a question upon which the government in Washington would be likely to base a reversal of judgment which would tend to discredit an administration regarded here as entirely satisfactory for a period of eighteen months, under unusually difficult circumstances."

Expected More Complications.
Further complications are expected to follow the resignation of the cabinet, as the governor general is limited in his power of appointment of his successors. He may appoint or designate temporary heads of the various departments, but permanent appointments must be confirmed by the Philippine senate, where Manuel Quezon is all-powerful.

Gen. Wood's differences with the local Philippine officials which began soon after his assumption of office, are believed in official circles here to be due primarily to the determination of the radical Philippine independence party to drive a wedge of non-cooperation between the Philippine administration and the United States.

His decision against immediate separation of the islands from American con-

TAXES, RAILWAYS SIDETRACK BEER AS ISSUE—BUCK

People Demand Prosperity, Senator Says.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., July 18.—(Special.)—The administration must not try to stress the world court and prohibition as issues but must turn its attention to such fundamental questions as transportation and taxation if it expects to win in the next campaign.

In the opinion of C. F. Buck, Illinois state senator and director of finance of the United States shipping board, Mr. Buck expressed his views in a letter to the Literary Digest.

"The issues of the next campaign will depend entirely upon the work of the next congress," Senator Buck said. "To win, President Harding's party must undertake to divert public attention to 'the world court,' light wine and beer, German reparations, etc., as fundamentals.

Seek Real Prosperity.
"These and similar issues are secondary just now to a large and important division of our people who are trying to live, keep out of bankruptcy, and prosper in proportion to his neighbor.

"If the party in power would win, it must, by the next congress:
"First, settle the transportation question; return into effect rates which are not confiscatory; do away with the labor aristocracy established by the railroads.
"Second, equalize taxation as far as possible, as between tangible and intangible property.

Help for Farmer.
"Third, bring the price of farm products to an equality with manufactured goods and labor.
"Fourth, bring all labor of its class to an equality.
"Until these things are done, the issue of the next campaign cannot be decided."

SENATOR JOHNSON TO TURN HEAVIEST GUNS ON THE WORLD COURT

(Chicago Times Herald News Service.)

PARIS, July 18.—It may be stated on the best authority that Senator Magnus Johnson of California, immediately upon his return to the United States, will turn his heaviest guns on the league of nations and the world court.

Mr. Johnson arrived in Europe in March. Since that time he has met practically all the high officials of the leading nations. The senator observed the workings of the world court at The Hague last June, with Richard M. Tohn, United States minister at The Hague.

The senator is returning to America on the Leviathan, which left for New York yesterday.

Vermont Governor Calls Special Senate Election

Montpelier, Vt., July 18.—Gov. Proctor today called a special senatorial election to be held Nov. 5 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William P. Dillingham, who was for twenty-three years a senator from Vermont. Gov. Proctor also ordered a special primary on Oct. 9 to nominate candidates for the senatorial election.

first trip abroad. The cooperative movement will be his special study, he said, as in European countries the movement has had its greatest growth.

Senator La Follette, in a statement issued in connection with the election of Magnus Johnson declared that "the old-Lincoln spirit is again sweeping the west. It will find its echo in the east, south, and middle west just as soon as courageous and able leaders of the type of Magnus Johnson arise to champion the cause of the common people."

Johnson and Lincoln.
"The election of a man of the character of Magnus Johnson is highly significant," said Mr. La Follette. "Born in poverty, educated in his early manhood through the labor of his own hands, Senator Johnson was the target in the campaign of the same cruel forces of violence which cartooned Abraham Lincoln as a leech and characterized him as an illiterate demagogue."

Gov. Preus had the support of all the reactionary forces not merely of Minnesota but also of the nation. It was well-known that if elected he would have followed reactionary leadership in the senate and rallied in the service of organized monopoly which was supporting him.

"Will Make Great Senator."

"Magnus Johnson took the people's side in this struggle. I am confident that he will demonstrate the same high courage, ability, and steadfastness in the public service which he exhibited in the campaign just closed. He will make a great senator for the people. His victory places Minnesota in the vanguard of the progressive line of march with two staunch progressives in the United States senate."

The mass of the people of Minnesota have been suffering from the same evils which have oppressed the people generally throughout the country. They have demanded that the monopoly power which dictates the prices the people must pay for every necessity of life and compels the producer to sell his products below the cost of production, must be destroyed. So long as in 1912, a President of the United States was elected upon the single pledge that he would free the country from this menace. He abandoned that issue in the second year of his first term."

Farmer-Labor Leaders Rejoice.
Omaha, Neb., July 18.—W. H. Green of Omaha, vice chairman of the Federated Farmer-Labor party recently organized at Chicago, issued a statement here today declaring that Magnus Johnson, newly elected Farmer-Labor candidate for United States senator from Minnesota, would help smash the "machine" that has "cleansed" American farmers.

United States Senator-elect R. B. Howell (Progressive Republican), of Nebraska, said today: "The Minnesota election is not an indication of the growth of radicalism, but merely shows the political power of the farmer."

Walton Also Glee.
Oklahoma City, Okla., July 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Gov. J. C. Walton of Oklahoma, elected last November on the Democratic ticket, with Farmer-Labor endorsement, today issued a statement congratulating "the farmers and toilers of Minnesota on their wonderful victory. He likened the farmer-labor movement today to the victorious assault on tyranny made by the 'American farmers and toilers at Sunkers Hill and Yorktown.'

The storage tank is not only air-tight and water-tight but heat-tight as well. A two-inch wall of ground cork—the most effective insulation known—keeps the heat in. Loss through radiation is practically nothing.

Whenever a faucet is turned and enough hot water is drawn from the tank to reduce the temperature below a certain point, it is automatically restored in a few minutes. That is the only time the gas burns.

The Humphrey Automatic Storage System is entirely self-operating. It will produce an abundant supply of hot water for months or years without anyone going near it.

And the cost of this wonderful service is surprisingly low. Considerably lower, you will find, than what you are paying now for service that doesn't begin to satisfy.

MONEY LOOMS AS FAVORITE SON OF ILLINOIS DEMOCRACY

Downstate Also Likely to Pick Governor.

George E. Brennan, under leadership of George E. Brennan, is expected to be a favorite son of the Democratic party in Illinois.

Chicago Gaining Favor. The selection of Chicago as the convention city seems to be the only one of the aforementioned predictions that is being realized.

Downstate Best Candidate. The crop of "favorite sons"—about 100 in all—are being put in the closet. Mr. Brennan's leadership, according to the latest reports, has been accepted for 1924 at least, by the Lewis-Dunne forces.

TURKEY TELLS ISMET TO SIGN PEACE TREATY

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Turkish government today authorized Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation at the Lausanne near east conference, to sign the peace treaty.

PARIS, July 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—The peace at Lausanne is an American and Turkish victory, the semi-official newspaper Le Temps declares.

"The United States, which might easily have been embarrassed by the hubbub over the Chester concession," says the paper, "has been able to avoid difficulties and has maintained its rights with dignity. If we understand the situation, the United States will continue to support the principle of the open door, like Japan, and consequently, American diplomacy will not remain aloof from the solution of the Mesopotamian problem."

Chicago Band Resumes Washington Park Concerts

SHORTWEIGHTS CAUGHT BY CITY SLEUTHS, FINED

Another corps of shortweight loaves, butchers, grocers, bakers, and coal merchants, discovered in their frauds by investigators for Carmen Vacco, city sealer, were haled into the Municipal court yesterday and punished by Judge Ann Adams.

Ravensstein Brothers, butchers at 917 East 43d street, were fined $100 after they had been brought into court on a warrant which was issued when they ignored repeated summonses to appear on a charge of selling short weight.

Others convicted and the penalties imposed are: The Carterville and Franklin Coal company, 4610 West Chicago avenue (short measure), $50 and costs; the Charles Coffee company, 1438 West Madison street, fined costs for selling three-quarter pound loaves of bread; Morris Cohn, 2454 West Roosevelt road (short weight bread), $10 and costs; Meyer Pucher, 4399 Indiana avenue (short weight), fined $25 and costs; and Frank Osterman, 1824 Dayton street (short weight loaf), was fined $25.

CONTINUOUS CASES OF COLLECTORS. The case of William Mathias and Joseph Rashman, arrested yesterday for passing as collectors for the Illinois department of consular, were continued until Aug. 1 in the South Clark street court.

DEMPEY FIGHT FILMS WON'T BE SEEN BY SOCIETY

Under orders of United States District Attorney Edwin A. Olson the rumored showing of the Dempsey-O'Brien fight films at the Bal de Lumiere at the Onwentsia Country club next Saturday was barred yesterday.

Scott Durand, president of the club, was summoned to the district attorney's office, where he was informed by Assistant District Attorney Edwin O. Weid that showing the pictures would be considered "aiding and abetting" their transportation from state to state. Their transportation is prohibited by federal law.

Mr. Durand said he knew nothing about any plans to show the fight film, and assured the district attorney that if any such plans were on foot they would be stopped. The showing of a few photographic plates last Monday is believed to have started the rumor that the movies would be displayed.

A. L. BAKER ILL, WIFE HURRIES FROM EUROPE

Mrs. Alfred Landon Baker, wife of the well known Chicago stock broker, is on her way back from Europe, where she was visiting with her daughter, Miss Mary Landon Baker, owing to the sudden illness of her husband here. A cablegram announcing Mr. Baker's illness was sent to her last Friday, when he was stricken on the way from the golf club to his home at Lake Forest, and Mrs. Baker replied that she was returning home immediately.

According to the physicians attending Mr. Baker, he is suffering from an infection of the gall bladder, which may lead to other complications. Yesterday saw a slight improvement, and the doctors were of the opinion that the crisis had been passed.

MASKERS ADMIT TORTURING AND BRANDING WOMAN

Tulsa, Okla., July 18.—[United Press.]—Twelve masked men, in a darkened room, "confessed" to a reporter that they abducted and tortured with acid Mrs. Pearl Hayter Monday evening, and a year ago whipped George Futropol, whom the woman claimed as her husband.

The twelve masked figures claimed to be prominent business men of Tulsa and Sapulpa, the reporter said.

"The leader of the group talked, while the figures circled the darkened room," the reporter wrote.

"He said: 'We kidnapped the Hayter woman Monday night from the streets of Tulsa. She was taken to a secluded spot in an automobile. There her hair was cut off and acid applied. The acid was not used to burn her severely, but to forever mar her beauty. This story is given so that the public may know the truth and all others may take warning.'"

The leader of the group denied the masked band was composed of members of the Ku Klux Klan.

"The Most Delightful Ride I Have Ever Taken"

President Harding is speaking of his ride across the mountains on the electrified route of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul.

"We slipped along in great comfort and with great pleasure," he told his public audience in Spokane, where the chief executive stopped on his way to Alaska.

Electricity—The Ultimate Power

"It was an inspiration to sit in the motor cab and think that while we coasted 20 miles down grade, we were storing up power to pull another train up."

"This was my first experience on a train drawn by an electric locomotive in this manner, and it was the most delightful ride I have ever taken."

You, Too, Should Take This Wonder Trip

Now, while summer fares are low, go out to Puget Sound over this electrified railway. Take "The Olympian," the crack transcontinental train of the world's most progressive railroad, and experience for yourself the delights of mountain travel on electric power.

FEDERAL RAIDERS SEIZE "BEER AND" LUNCHES IN LOOP

Liquor Confiscated in Six Downtown Saloons.

Lunchers who prefer beer and a sandwich for noonday meals were rudely driven from their haunts yesterday when federal officers descended on six loop saloons, arrested the bartenders, and whisked the patrons' liquid refreshment from under their noses.

Twenty-four bottles of beer, twenty-one bottles of wine, twenty-one bottles of gin, and a quantity of cordials were seized. Allen Neville, the bartender, was arrested.

At 223 North Dearborn street four gallons of alleged liquor were seized and Anthony Molinelli was arrested. At 223 North Clark street the agents confiscated a gallon of mixed drinks and seven barrels of beer, and arrested Louis McNamara, bartender.

Trucks and Beer Taken.
Harry A. Schmidt was arrested when the dry squad reached 126 West Randolph street, where they found six gallons of liquor and eighteen barrels of beer. At 125 West South Water street Alvin Conway, bartender, was arrested and liquor and beer were seized. At 111 North Dearborn street the agents seized Adolph Menkin and John Burdick and seized a quantity of liquor.

The noonday raids followed the seizure in the morning of three men operating two trucks on which forty barrels of alleged real beer were loaded. A squad under Acting Chief Field Agent G. J. Simons of the prohibition office made the arrest at 59th street and Princeton avenue.

The final raid of the day was made in a saloon at 1813 West Cullerton avenue, where Frank Grobowick and seven gallons of liquor were seized.

Deny New Dealer Connection.
Reports that William A. Sadler, defendant in the alleged $100,000 booze ring indictment in which John J. "Boss" McLaughlin was included, had made a new confession yesterday were denied last night by Assistant District Attorneys Edward Hess and Guy C. Czapla. The federal prosecutors said Sadler, who is now out on bond, merely acknowledged a former two year old confession at the time of his arrest in Detroit a few days ago.

Two more of the twenty-two defendants in the McLaughlin indictment surrendered themselves yesterday. The two were Matthew Meydert and Benjamin Collins. They were released on $5,000 bond.

Former Agent Surrenders.
Daniel T. Agnew, former prohibition agent, who was convicted of extorting "hush money" from foreigners found running stills, surrendered yesterday to United States Marshal Robert L. Levy. He will be taken to the federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth to begin serving his sentence of one year and a day.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

BERLIN, July 18.—Princess Margret of Hohenzollern-Cöhringen, accused of helping in the escape of Capt. Ehrhardt, who led the Kapp revolt, is now in the same jail at Leipzig from which Ehrhardt escaped. It became known to night. While Ehrhardt, to the indignation of his fellow prisoners, was allowed to wear civilian clothes and to order and pay for his sumptuous meals, the princess is forced to wear the jail uniform and to eat jail food.

WIDOW IS LINKED WITH SLAYER BY YOUNG STEPSON

Denials by Mrs. Colangelo Salerno in her cell yesterday that she had been unduly interested in her boarder, Anbroto Gilberto, who is now being sought as a madman and murderer, were countered by the accusation of her stepson, Frank Salerno, 11 years old.

"I have seen Mr. Gilberto kiss her," the youth who was orphaned Tuesday night, when a man believed to be Gilberto killed Salerno, a contractor, and shot Charles Gots, secretary to the president of the C. M. & St. P. R. R., told Capt. Ryan in his stepmother's presence. "She used to send me to the store when daddy was away and the boarder home."

She Denies It.
"It's a lie," Mrs. Salerno shouted, though she had previously said she couldn't speak or understand English. "Do I look like that kind of a woman?" she pleaded in broken English. "I did nothing wrong. I left home because my man always hit me. I went to live with my sister, Mrs. McIntyre, 1621 Almond street."

The police sought Gilberto at that address, after learning that Mrs. Salerno had gone there when she left her husband's home, 215 West Taylor street, on May 11, a day after Gilberto had been taken to prison by police.

ing between the husband and the man he accused of wounding his home. Hearing on the warrants which Salerno had sworn out for his wife and Alberto was on the court call yesterday, although the warrant had not been served on the former boarder.

Gots, who was shot twice in the head when he attacked the automobile he was driving "the hell" at the command of the slayer of Salerno, was said to have a chance for his life last night.

A cool fact

¶ We hear a good deal these days about wonderful methods of refrigerating air supplied to patrons of restaurants.

¶ But we hear very little about food refrigeration—a matter of far greater importance.

¶ Farmers who build large houses and small barns find small credit at their banks. Restaurant operators whose chief equipment is in the front of their establishments find patronage hard to hold.

¶ Has it never occurred to you that the reason for the very evident excellence of all food served in Henrici's must be based, in part, upon most unusual equipment "behind the scenes"?

¶ It is a fact that in Henrici's much more space is devoted to the storage and preparation of food than is used for table room and other purposes within view of patrons.

¶ The great comfort of the Henrici ventilation system speaks for itself and the great efficiency of the Henrici method of food refrigeration is evidenced by the perfection of the condition of all food served.

¶ During "hot spells" compare the condition of food served elsewhere with the condition of even the most highly perishable food served in Henrici's.

¶ Why not Henrici's today?

TRACTION WAGE HEARING "TO GO TO JURY" TODAY

Decision of Arbiters Is Expected Saturday.

Chicago's traction wage dispute will go to the jury today—the arbitration board which has been holding hearings in the City Hall council chamber since July 9—before a final decision will be made. The board, which is composed of representatives of the city, the union and the companies, has been hearing testimony from both sides. The city's position is that the wages are too high, while the union insists that they are too low. The board's decision is expected to be made on Saturday.

The men, in each instance, are seeking an increase of 10 cents an hour. They are now getting 70 cents an hour. The companies, who receive 11 cents. This is the highest rate paid in the city. The board's decision is expected to be made on Saturday.

Other Cities to Be Affected. Because there are street car wage disputes in other cities, the forthcoming decision is of more than local interest. Adding to national aspect of the controversy is the contention of William D. Mahon, international president of the car men's union, that "big business" generally is supporting the effort to hold the wages of traction employees down in Chicago, admittedly the stronghold of the car men's union. Mahon's view is that the union is being used to lower wages all down the line in other industries.

There was only a morning session of the arbitration hearing yesterday, when George W. Miller, attorney for the traction lines, completed his case with the testimony of R. J. McElraith, engineer for the company. After closing the finished purchasing power of the dollar, Mr. McElraith said that, allowing for this, street car employees are receiving an average of 50 pre-war dollars a year more now for eight hours work than they received in 1914. He also said that the union is now a "big business" and is being used to lower wages all down the line in other industries.

HIGH MILK PRICE LAID TO FARMERS AND UNION WAGES

High wages paid to union milk wagon drivers and helpers and the excessive prices charged by farmers for their products are responsible for the high cost of milk in Chicago. Such was the explanation advanced by milk dealers at a conference in State's Attorney Cramer's office yesterday afternoon to discuss conditions in line with an investigation being conducted by the state's attorney.

Among those present were Everett C. Rockwell, representing the Milk Producers' association; J. T. Williams, president of the Milk Producers' Cooperative Marketing association; F. H. Kuhlman, vice president of the Roman Dairy company; Assistant State's Attorney Thomas Peden and John Sbarbaro, and Joseph Rushkewicz, secretary of the city council high cost committee.

Differs on Cost to Consumer. Mr. Rushkewicz presented figures to show milk could be delivered for 3 1/2 cents per quart. Mr. Kuhlman expressed the opinion milk could not be delivered for less than 11 cents. "So far as the Roman Dairy company is concerned," said Mr. Kuhlman, "there can be no reduction in the present price. The men who work on the wagons are paid the union scale and there is no way of getting around that. The farmers are crying now that they are not getting enough for their products. So long as they charge us high prices just so long will the price of milk stay up."

AFTER OTHER PROFITERS

Profiteering laundrymen who have taken advantage of the wash tub by boosting their prices 25 to 35 per cent and restaurateurs who demand more than 500 per cent profit on her husband's laundry bill are to be the subjects of investigations by the council high cost of living committee, its secretary, Joseph Rushkewicz, announced yesterday.

The committee's investigators, after canvassing loop restaurants, discovered that an average price of 40 cents for a hot beef or pork sandwich was maintained. From their reports and his personal investigations, Mr. Rushkewicz declares that a fair price for the sandwich would be 10 cents, and only one lunchroom near the loop could be found selling them at that figure.

Where the higher prices are maintained in spite of his protests, Mr. Rushkewicz proposes to summon the restaurant owner to his office for questioning.

Other Cities to Be Affected. Because there are street car wage disputes in other cities, the forthcoming decision is of more than local interest. Adding to national aspect of the controversy is the contention of William D. Mahon, international president of the car men's union, that "big business" generally is supporting the effort to hold the wages of traction employees down in Chicago, admittedly the stronghold of the car men's union. Mahon's view is that the union is being used to lower wages all down the line in other industries.

Don't Just Say "Re-Sole 'em!"

Notwithstanding their increased revenue which follows the advent of summer, when many families accustomed to washing their own linen use the laundry service, the charge for laundering plain shirts has been boosted from 14 cents to 25 cents, the committee learned yesterday. Plain shirts, formerly washed for 10 cents, are now 20 cents, while linen collars have been raised from 4 cents to 6 cents.

Say "KL-Em!"

—and protect yourself against poor wearing leather, imitation leather, swelled leather and leather substitutes. It's real economy to have your shoes re-soled—but it's poor economy to accept any sole or to ask for a thick sole. Most thick soles are actually weak, because they are acid-swelled. Moreover, it strains the shoe to have a re-sole heavier than the original sole.

Three Things to Remember

1. It is the mark of real thrift to have your shoes re-soled; and every good pair is worth at least two re-solings.
2. Have them re-soled by a reliable shoe repair shop.

2,000 CITY HALL JOBS PLACED ON BASIS OF MERIT

Examinations to Be Held Immediately.

Two thousand or more political appointments in the city hall will be replaced by employees chosen in merit examinations to be held immediately, President Nicholas F. Dineen announced yesterday.

At the same time the commission, in accordance with a ruling of Corporation Counsel Francis X. Busch, revoked certificates awarded to four department chief clerks after the notorious examinations held by the Thompson-Lundin commission in November, 1921, when Roy James Battie, stellar thirteenth district alderman and a sixty-day appointee, secured preferment over twenty head clerks entitled to promotion.

Recall All Certifications.
Because Battie, with William J. Schultz, chief clerk in the city water office, and James P. Bowler, chief clerk in the fire department, at that time temporary employees, were allowed to compete in an examination legally restricted to civil service employees, Mr. Busch ordered "all certifications as the result of this examination recalled."

As a result of the revocation order, William F. Arragh, council secretary in charge of committee rooms, is reduced to his former rank as council committee secretary, and Samuel F. Manning, chief clerk in the health department, is demoted to a principal clerkship in the same department.

The order, which J. J. Schulte and Bowler from the city pay roll, also withdrew the slight list headed by Battie, and thereby, according to city hall rumors, upsets the scheme by which the latter hoped to secure a permanent berth.

Some of His Acts.
When the finance committee refused to increase his pay from $4,000 to $4,500 annually, Battie, who was fined for conspiracy on the ticket deal, attempted to pay himself $5,000 a year. He was discovered. Later he caused an $8,000 overdraft on the city treasury by paying overtime to clerks in violation of an ordinance.

Ruth Harrah and Manning, it is said, will be retained in their present positions until after they have qualified again in the examinations.
"That's fine. Go to it and get the entire city hall under civil service as soon as you can," declared Mayor Dwyer yesterday when apprised of the committee's decision to nullify the first promotional examination today. Almost daily examinations of applicants will be held until Sept. 5, Secretary Postinger told the mayor, and before that time at least 500 "temporary" appointees will have been supplanted by promoted veterans of the city's service.

To Fill Thousands of Jobs.
At the same time thousands of applicants will be examined for places in the police and fire departments and as lieutenants in all branches of the city's activities. The scheduled examinations are the most extensive ordered in several years.

Among the positions to be filled from recent eligible lists are a third assistant superintendent of streets, junior fire prevention engineer, and superintendent of employment in the department of public welfare, a post now filled by Thomas Allison.

Other positions to be competed for in the examination are accountants, cashiers, contract clerks, special assessment clerks, tellers, secretaries, reading clerks, librarians, clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, bacteriologists, paving inspectors, license clerks, sanitary chemists, ambulance surgeons, and dispensary physicians, as well as janitors, carpenters, and other laborers.

WHOLESALE PRICES OF FOODS GO DOWN; RETAIL PRICES UP

Washington, D. C., July 13.—Although the general level of wholesale prices throughout the country decreased nearly 2 per cent from May to June, according to figures assembled by the bureau of labor statistics, the retail food index showed an increase of 1 per cent.

Among the 404 commodities included in the wholesale price statistics, building materials showed the largest decrease, averaging 4 per cent. Farm products, food, clothes and clothing and miscellaneous commodities registered smaller declines. Decreases were shown in 190 commodities, increases in 55, and 161 were listed as unchanged.

Thirteen articles of food increased in price at retail between May 15 and June 15, while fifteen showed declines and fifteen were unchanged. Potatoes advanced 14 per cent; round steak, 5 per cent; salmon steak, leg of lamb and codfish, 4 per cent; chuck roast and bananas, 3 per cent; rib roast and cheese, 2 per cent; ham and fresh eggs, 1 per cent; and vegetable lard and substitutes and tea less than half of one per cent. The chief decreases recorded were cabbage, 23 per cent, and butter, 4 per cent.

The increase in the retail food price level from June 15, 1922, to June 15, 1923, averaged 3 per cent. The general wholesale markets, meanwhile registered a decline of 2 per cent.

RULES DRAFTED FOR OPERATION OF ZONING BOARD

Will Be Offered for Adoption Monday.

Regulations governing complaints to and procedure of hearings before the zoning board of appeals have been prepared and will be presented for approval at the board's next meeting on Monday morning by Secretary H. G. Frost. Uniform blanks for property owners who desire consideration of their claims by the board also will be submitted for adoption.

As tentatively drafted by Mr. Frost, the rules provide for public meetings of the board every Tuesday afternoon, which "must be attended by board members in person," although three members will constitute a quorum. Four members of the board, however, must concur in any order reversing, suspending or annulling a building permit or to authorize a variation of the zoning ordinance in special instances. Appeals from the building commissioner's ruling, which may be taken by either the prospective builder or any city official or department head, must be filed with the board secretary within twenty days after notice of the appeal has been given the commissioner.

Detailed information is required by the board in the appeal blanks, which will be docketed as are regular court cases and given a calendar number. Appellants will be notified by letter when their case has been set for trial. Under the zoning ordinance the board may subpoena and swear witnesses in its investigation of appeals, and the new rules contemplate surveys of the property involved by staff experts, as well as personal visits by the board members before a decision is given in any case. Twenty-five appeals now pending before the board will be set for hearing as soon as the board moves into its new quarters on the sixth floor of the city hall. President Allen B. Pond said yesterday.

2 MORE YACHTS ENTER FOR LONG MACKINAC RACE

BY HUGH FULLERTON.

Two additional starters, and one change of mind brought the number of yachts that will contest in the Mackinac race, which starts Sunday afternoon, up to twenty. There are now entered certain start, although a final decision has not been made—and the fleet which will break through the Van Buren street gap will be the largest and fastest in the history of the race.

Yesterday George H. Seagrave, who had decided to withdraw his speedy Vandalia from the event because of pressure of business, looked it over and changed his mind and the Vandalia over cheered the decision to start.

Nabob and Fame Entered.

Don Smith announced to start Nabob, while William G. D'Or concluded that Fame is good enough for the event. The interest in the approaching event is keener than ever before and instead of one race the event has become four, between the four classes.

The big interest, course, is in the heavy schooners, most of which have been overhauled and refitted.

Rainbow, the flagship of the fleet, supported by Commodore Sheldon Clark, has been restocked and fitted with new sails, her bottom sanded and calked, and the crew is praying for heavy weather from any direction save the northeast.

The keenest rivalry is between Intrepid, Don Prather's big mahogany speedster, twice winner of the event, and J. G. Glaver's Mavourneen. Intrepid must give Mavourneen twenty-four minutes in 221 miles, which is not much, but sometimes enough.

Mavourneen has been refitted and revamped and is sailing great guns. It has beaten Intrepid level in short races, and has a plot crew. Wendell, Paul L'Amereau's big racer, is being considered as more dangerous than Jim Handley, veteran of ten Mackinac races, is one of the clearest skippers on the lakes.

Mavourneen All Fitted Out.
K. W. Brown's Victory, which is a real ship, is feared if the weather is suitable.

The Buffalo Q boat entry (name not known) is somewhere on the lakes, with no positive word as to whether she can reach Chicago in time.

There will be a big dinner at the Tenth club tomorrow evening, with all theippers and crews present.

Woods and Waters

NOTES BY THE WAY.
It is a known fact that deer, moose, bear, and other mammals will swim long distances across lakes and rivers, but the night before writing this article, while canoeing on Black Oak lake, we ran into a diminutive swimmer who certainly does take the cake. It was dusk and we were slowly paddling along the wooded shore line, expecting any minute to see a deer.

A short distance to the left, in the bay, a swimming animal was noticed, which apparently had come from the other side, where the distance from shore to shore was a quarter of a mile. We shoved the canoe along after the swimmer. At first it looked like a small muskrat, then a weasel, and imagine our surprise upon coming up to it to find that it was a squirrel!

Hittin' on all fours, tail stretched out like a rudder, the little fellow came right toward the canoe and tried to climb up the side of it, but, of course, couldn't make it. As a convoy, we saw him safely to shore, where he grabbed a branch hanging over the water and soon disappeared.

Kindly for the squirrel, there are no muskrats in this lake.

The New York Times.

New York, July 18.—(Special.)—Practically all markets today exhibited increased activity, with moderately higher prices and with an almost complete absence of the pessimism which has been productive of unsettledness and irregularity.

There was no pell mell rush to buy either stocks or commodities and a careful analysis of the character of buying would bring the conclusion that most of it was for the account for those who had previously sold for the decline. But, nevertheless, in some directions at least, the character of purchasing, especially in wheat and the best class of stocks, was sufficiently aggressive to provide a working tone for the markets all day.

Wheat for Overseas.—The rally in wheat was plainly the result of an overvalued condition in the market. It was not a speculative rally, but a rally of the character of the most important financial developments and involved almost unlimited attention in other speculative markets.

It is not evident that in the last three days there have developed any factors which will prove to be a permanent aid to the wheat farmer. Weather conditions in the wheat belt are just as favorable now as then; foreign buyers are to be classed as a development whose impulse comes from within the market itself rather than from without. A nation-wide campaign to improve domestic consumption, patterned along the lines of the "buy a bale of cotton" movement which aided the south at the outbreak of the war, is in the making. This may have accelerated the recovery.

Broader Stock Market.—The stock market was a little broader and more active than it has been in the past few days. The week and some moderate gains were established in a wide list of stocks, most of them, however, on a speculative basis. The market was characterized by a number of factors which indicate that the rally buying power at the moment is coming from those who have sold for the decline and who wish to close their commitments.

TAXATION WORKS AS A DETRIMENT ON TIMBER LAND

BY SCRUTATOR.

No matter what field of business effort one may examine, the crushing handicaps of too much government and taxation are found slowing up the processes of civilization.

The progress of chemical engineering calls for the replacement of our virgin timber by a suitable wood crop, not necessarily big trees, but an ample growth of small quick maturing species, well known to plant breeders. The lands are available. Plowed lands have taken the place of only some part of the deforested areas. Cut over lands in small lots and huge tracts would produce abundant wood products, with a little care.

Why is such small effort made in this direction? The answer is taxes.

C. H. McDowell of Chicago, appointed chairman of a special committee of the National Association of Engineering Societies on Reafforestation, points out the trouble. "One of the greatest difficulties in encouraging reforestation on cut over lands, owned by private companies, is the compounded effect of interest on taxes over the long period taken in growing a usable crop of timber. In some of the countries of Europe it is their custom to not tax growing reforested timber, but to have only normal taxes and to obtain their main revenue at the time the timber is sold on income returns."

"Land out of use" is the bête noir of single taxers, in very often forest land in prospect. The writer knows of men of moderate means who have been listed by 1921 at 1935, the same place would cost $1,500. Carpenter's wages are not the big item after all. This 300 per cent increase is not because of actual timber costs. We still have a billion billion bushels of virgin timber out of an estimated original 6 trillion, and we have about 800 billion bushels of second growth and culls. The latter are practically as good for chemical purposes as the virgin timber.

PARIS, July 19.—The idea of a personal conference between Premier Poincare and Prime Minister Baldwin on a solution to the present deadlock on the reparations situation—proposed for the house of commons debate next Thursday—is put forward by the French foreign office.

Premier Poincare would welcome such a private personal conference now, as the French dread the results of an open debate in the house of commons. Quil d'Orsay asserts nothing is known so far as to England's attitude towards such a conference.

The development of this idea shows how the constant pressure from England, from Belgium and from the French opposition to weakening Poincare's original stand. Poincare's circles here are astonished at the change, as on June 8, when Chancellor Bismarck's note arrived, Prime Minister Baldwin's first suggestion was a meeting of the premiers, which Premier Poincare refused.

Today Premier Poincare asks for a meeting, and the foreign office believes a final night will end the debate on reparations.

LONDON, July 19.—(Tribune Radio.)

The British cabinet spent nearly three hours today discussing the draft of the reply to the German note and adjourned without completing an agreement. Another cabinet meeting will have to be held before the draft can be sent to the allies and the United States for approval. The task of framing a reply to the Germans which will express England's determination to restore peace in Europe and at the same time to avoid giving serious offense to the French is proving more difficult than was expected.

The draft of the note prepared by Lord Curzon was presented to the cabinet today, accompanied by two other documents, one covering the letter and the other a long carefully prepared statement by treasury and board of trade experts on what, in Great Britain's opinion, Germany is able to pay and how. The discussion of the cabinet was along lines of a suggestion to incorporate some part of this memorandum into the note.

Curzon Too Mild?

It also is stated that Lord Curzon's note was found too mild by some members of the cabinet and that an alternative, or at least a substantially amended note, was presented by Lord Halifax, who said he did so at the request of Prime Minister Baldwin.

The treasury, it appears, estimated Germany's capacity to pay somewhat larger than some British officials' views, and now approximates the Belgian figure—of course, after the mark is stabilized and the state railways and other revenue and earning activities reorganized.

The British offer in January to forgive 11 per cent of the allied debt, if their terms the German debt above actual reparations, is believed now to be unjustified on a business basis, and may be amended. It is believed that the French action in the Ruhr has so impaired the German capacity to pay that the offer can no longer hold.

On Film Talk.

So far as can be learned, while there is a difference of opinion in the cabinet, there is no real split. The difference is simply on the manner of expressing the British policy, some members, notably Prime Minister Baldwin, taking the line that it is the best policy to talk quite plainly and firmly to Germany, while others, led by Lord Curzon, wish to give the full French communication in polite words and apparent concessions.

The statement by the French foreign office that the Germans are negotiating in London to secure the British help, promising to capitulate in the Ruhr, if England will induce France to remove its troops and restore the German civil administration, is officially denied here to be untrue. No such negotiations have taken place.

Prime Minister Baldwin, answering a question in the house of commons this afternoon, stated the number of British troops in occupied territory are 475 officers and 4,331 in other ranks, at an annual cost of £1,002,000 ($7,379,000).
